Textbook: Essential Calculus: Early Transcendentals, second edition, by James Stewart (Cengage Learning) and aWebAssign access code for submitting on-line homework.

Lectures: MWF 10:35am - 11:30am , Room: Carnegie Hall 114

Recitations: Thursday 2.00pm-3.20pm CARN 316.

Homework & WebAssign: You will need to create your WebAssign account at <http://www.webassign.net> in order to submit your on-line homework. You will "self enroll" into this section of MAT295 by using the following class key: syr 5009 0573 You should set up your account using your SU username and SU email address. Please do this today!

Quizzes: A short quiz will be given each week during recitation. Quizzes may be given during lecture as well. Two lowest quiz grades will be dropped. There will be NO make-up quizzes.

Exam Schedule:

Exam 1: Wednesday, Feb 4th in lecture

Exam 2: Wednesday, March 4th in lecture

Exam 3: Friday, April 10th in lecture

Final Exam Monday, May 4th, 2015.

Course Policies: Attendance is strongly encouraged. You are responsible for lecture notes, any course material handed out in class and posted on course website. No cell phones, pagers nor laptops are allowed during the lectures. I strongly encourage active participation in the classroom.

Calculator Policy: You are allowed to use a graphing calculator (such as TI-84, TI-85) on homeworks. The use of a calculator is NOT allowed on quizzes or exams.

Make-up policy: There will be NO make-up for quizzes or exams, even in the case of an emergency. If you miss an exam, you will have to be cleared by me to be excused from the exam, a process that will include documentation and a valid excuse. In this case the ultimate grade for that exam will be calculated based on your performance on future exams and the final.

Students with Disabilities: If you believe that you need accommodations for a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), web <http://disabilityservices.syr.edu>, located in Room 303 of 804 University Avenue, or call 315-443-4498 for an appointment to discuss your needs and the process for requesting accommodations. ODS is responsible coordinating disability-related accommodations and will issue students with documented disabilities Accommodation Authorization Letters, as appropriate. Since accommodations may require early planning and generally are not provided retroactively, please contact ODS as soon as possible. You are also welcome to contact me privately to discuss your academic needs although I cannot arrange for disability-related accommodations.

Academic Honesty: The strength of the university depends on academic and personal integrity. In this course, you must be honest and truthful. Cheating is wrong. Cheating hurts our community by undermining academic integrity, creating mistrust, and fostering unfair competition. The university will punish cheaters with failure on an assignment, failure in a course, permanent transcript notation, suspension, and/or expulsion. Offenses may be reported to law, or other professional or school when a cheater applies.

Violations can include cheating on exams, plagiarism, reuse of assignments without permission, improper use of the Internet and electronic devices unauthorized collaboration, alteration of graded assignments, forgery and falsification, lying, facilitating academic dishonesty, and unfair competition. Ignorance of these rules is not an excuse. For more information and the complete policy, see <http://academicintegrity.syr.edu>.

Religious observances policy: SU religious observances policy recognizes the diversity of faiths represented among the campus community and protects the rights of students, faculty, and staff to observe religious holidays according to their tradition. Under the policy, students are provided an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or work requirements that may be missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes. Students have access to an online notification form through MuSlice that they can use to notify their instructors.
