Text: An Introduction to Analysis, by W.R. Wade, Prentice Hall, 4th edition.

Class Time and Room: TTh 2:00 -3:20 am, Room 119 Carnegie.

Course Description: Introduction to the foundations of calculus covering topics from the following: the real number system, functions, limits, sequences, infinite series, continuity, and uniform continuity. Enrollment limited to mathematics majors. PREREQ: (MAT 375 OR CIS 375) AND MAT 397.

Course Content: Chapters 1-4: Real numbers, sequences, functions, differentiability. An approximate order of events is:

- Chapter 1 Some of this was covered in MAT 375. What's new is the real numbers as a complete ordered field (Sections 1.2 and 1.3). You are responsible for learning or recalling the rest of the material in Chapter 1.
- Chapter 2 Sequences, Bolzano-Weierstrass theorem, Cauchy sequences in (Sections 2.1-2.4), and limsup and liminf (Section 2.5).
- Chapter 3 Limits of functions, Continuity, Uniform Continuity (Sections 3.1-3.4).
- Chapter 4 Derivatives, Mean Value Theorem, Taylor's Theorem, L'hoptial's rule, Inverse function theorem (Sections 4.1-4.5).

Learning Goals:

- Understand the nature and role of deductive reasoning in mathematics.
- Use and understand the usage of mathematical notation.
- Follow proofs and other mathematical discourse.
- Write rigorous proofs of mathematical statements.

Course Grade: There will be two one-hour exams during the semester (each worth 25% of the course grade) and a cumulative final exam (worth 30% of the course grade). Also, there will be several equally-weighted problem sets which will be collected and graded. One homework score will be dropped. Homework is worth 20% of the course grade. Class attendance is required.

Exams:

1. Exam Dates (tentative):

Exam 1 - Thursday, October 6, 2016

Exam 2 – Tuesday, November 17, 2016

Final Exam – Friday, December 16, 2016, 8:00 – 10:00 am (not tentative!)

2. There will be no makeup exams. In case of a missed exam with a valid and verifiable reason, the relevant portion of the comprehensive final will be used to determine the missing exam score.

Homework: There will be several problem sets assigned during the semester. You may work with others on the homework, but you must write up your own solutions and you are responsible for your solutions. Problem sets will not be accepted late.

Academic Integrity: The Syracuse University Academic Integrity Policy holds students accountable for the integrity of the work they submit. Students should be familiar with the Policy and know that it is their responsibility to learn about instructor and general academic expectations with regard to proper citation of sources in written work. The policy also governs the integrity of work submitted in exams and assignments as well as the veracity of signatures on attendance sheets and other verifications of participation in class activities. Serious sanctions can result from academic dishonesty of any sort. For more information and the complete policy, see <http://academicintegrity.syr.edu>. The use of or availability of any electronic device during a midterm exam or final exam is a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy.

Students with Disabilities: If you need accommodations for a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), <http://disabilityservices.syr.edu>, located in Room 309 of 804 University Avenue, or call (315) 443-4498 for an appointment to discuss your needs and the process for requesting accommodations. ODS is responsible for coordinating disability-related accommodations and will issue students with documented disabilities Accommodation Authorization Letters, as appropriate. Since accommodations may require early planning and generally are not provided retroactively, please contact ODS as soon as possible.

Religious Observances Policy: Syracuse University's religious observances policy, found at http://supolicies.syr.edu/emp_ben/religious_observance.htm, recognizes the diversity of faiths represented among the campus community and protects the rights of students, faculty, and staff to observe religious holy days according to their tradition. Under the policy, students are provided an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or work requirements that maybe missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes. For fall and spring semesters, an online notification process is available through MySlice/Student Services/Enrollment/My Religious Observances from the first day of class until the end of the second week of class.
