To-do list

- Read the full syllabus, which is posted on Blackboard and at math.syr.edu/syllabi
- Sign up for WebAssign at webassign.net using Class Key syr 6646 3309
- Check your calendar to make sure you will be here for the midterm and final exams.
- In case of absences due to religious observances, enter them on MySlice (Student Services → Enrollment → My Religious Observances) by the end of the second week of classes.
- Make sure you have the textbook (Stewart, Essential Calculus: Early Transcendentals, 2nd ed.) and WebAssign Access Code (required to continue using WebAssign after two weeks). They are sold as a bundle at SU Bookstore. The code can also be purchased separately, at the bookstore or directly at WebAssign website. It includes access to electronic textbook. Since this book, and WebAssign, are also used in MAT 296 and 397, you should get a multi-term (lifetime of edition) access code.

Important Dates

Friday, September 1	First homework due at 9:30 AM . First quiz in recitation.
Tuesday, September 5	Last day to add a class or to change a section
Wednesday, September 20	Exam 1 (in class)
Thursday, October 19	Exam 2 (in recitation)
Monday, October 23	Last day to drop (no mark on transcript)
Thursday, November 16	Exam 3 (in recitation)

Class Meetings: MWF 9:30–10:25, Carnegie 114.

Recitation: Th 3:30–4:50, Carnegie 100.

Grading Scheme: 20% each exam, 12% quizzes, 8% WebAssign homework. Two lowest homework scores and two lowest quiz scores will be dropped.

Homework due dates are on WebAssign: they are at 9:30 AM on Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays, so you may want to do the homework the day before. Homework is essential to your success in this course. Attempt every problem (those on WebAssign and those listed below) and bring your questions to recitation or office hours.

Quizzes will be given in almost every recitation, except for exam days. They will be based on the textbook problems listed below. See Blackboard for specific sections covered by each quiz. No calculators are allowed on quizzes or exams.

A missed quiz or exam will count as zero unless it is due to a documented religious observance, University-sponsored team event, or documented emergency. For religious observances and University-sponsored events, this documentation must be submitted in advance, and you must make arrangement to take the quiz or exam before the class does. For emergencies, you must present documentation from a physician or from the Dean's Office as soon as you are able to resume attending classes. In such cases, a missed score will be replaced by the score on the corresponding portion of the material on the final exam.

Extra help, in addition to office hours, is available in Calculus/Math Clinics: the schedule will be posted at math.syr.edu/help after the semester begins. Email also works for quick questions.

Problems not resolved by the course instructor should be brought to the attention of the Course Supervisor: Professor Duane Graysay, Carnegie 103C, 443-1485, dtgraysa@syr.edu
